THE PARLIAMENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF MOLDOVA
THE LAW ON THE SPECIAL LEGAL STATUS OF GAGAUZIA (Gagauz Yeri)

Being guided by the principles laid out in the Constitution of the Republic of Moldova; showing goodwill and a desire to preserve good relations that have been built up for centuries among peoples;

with the aim of satisfying the national needs and preserving the national identity of the Gagauzes, bringing about their full and comprehensive development, fostering their language and national culture, and assuring their political and economic self-reliance;

taking into consideration that the original bearer of the status of Gagauzia (Gagauz Yeri - the place where Gagauzes live) is the numerically small Gagauz people residing densely on the territory of the Republic of Moldova;

considering the priority of human rights and the necessity of combining interests common to all mankind with those of the nation;

confirming the equality of rights of all citizens who live on the territory of the autonomous territorial unit, which is being created without regard to nationality or other distinctions, the Parliament adopts the present Law.

Art. 1.

1. Gagauzia (Gagauz Yeri) is an autonomous territorial unit, with a special status as a form of self-determination of the Gagauzes, which constitutes an integral part of the Republic of Moldova.

2. Gagauzia shall, within the limits of its competence, resolve by itself questions of political, economic and cultural development in the interests of all its population.

3. All the rights and liberties defined in the Constitution and legislation of the Republic of Moldova shall be guaranteed on the territory of Gagauzia.

4. In case of a change of the status of the Republic of Moldova as an independent state, the people of Gagauzia shall have the right of external self-determination.

Art. 2.

Gagauzia shall be governed on the basis of the Constitution of the Republic of Moldova, the present Law, other laws of the Republic of Moldova (with exceptions foreseen in the present Law), and by the Code of Gagauzia and enactments of the People’s Assembly (Halk Tolpushu) of Gagauzia to degree that they do not conflict with the Constitution and legislation of the Republic of Moldova.

Art. 3.
1. The official languages of Gagauzia shall be Moldovan, Gagauz and Russian. The use of other languages on the territory of Gagauzia shall be guaranteed alongside the official ones.

2. The correspondence with public authorities of the Republic of Moldova, and enterprises, organisations and institutions outside Gagauzia shall be in Moldovan and Russian.

Art. 4.

Gagauzia shall have its own symbols which shall be used alongside the state symbols of the Republic of Moldova.

Art. 5.

1. Gagauzia shall include localities in which Gagauzes constitute less than fifty percent of population.
2. Localities in which Gagauzes constitute less than fifty percent of population may be included in Gagauzia on the basis of the freely expressed will of a majority of the electorate revealed during a local referendum.

Art. 6.

The land, mineral resources, water flora and fauna, other natural resources, movable and real property situated on the territory of Gagauzia shall be the property of the people of the Republic of Moldova and at the same time shall represent the economic basis of Gagauzia.

Art. 7.

The representative authority of Gagauzia shall be the People's Assembly, which shall have the power, within the limits of its competence, to enact laws.

Art. 8.

1. The People's Assembly shall be elected by electoral districts for four-year terms by universal, equal, direct, secret and free vote.
2. The numerical composition of the People's Assembly shall be established as follows: one deputy for 5000 electors with the condition that each locality shall have at least one deputy.
3. A citizen of the Republic of Moldova who has attained the age of 21 and who lives on the day of the elections in the electoral district (locality) he will represent may be a deputy of the People's Assembly.

Art. 9.

The position of deputy of the People's Assembly of Gagauzia, being a paid post, is incompatible with any kind of paid post whatsoever in other local authorities, public institutions, and business organisations.

Art. 10.
1. At its first session, the People's Assembly shall elect a Chairman of the People's Assembly (Halk Toplushu Bashi), Vice-Chairmen, and a Presidium, and shall adopt rules of order for the People's Assembly.

2. One of the Vice-Chairmen of the People's Assembly shall be chosen from among the deputies of ethnic origin other than Gagauz.

Art. 11.

1. The People's Assembly of Gagauzia shall adopt, within the limits of its competence, local laws by a majority of votes of the elected deputies.

2. The Code of Gagauzia shall be adopted by two-thirds of the votes of the elected deputies.

Art. 12.
